

Index

Volume 57: September, 1985–May, 1986

Titles

An actress blooms in the desert, by Michael J. Peitz	May	January
Are you ready for college? by James C. Christian	May	February
Barry Stavis: sixty years of craft and commitment, by Ezra Goldstein	April	May
Brooklyn calling, by Don Corathers and Ezra Goldstein	May	April
Bye bye Broadway high tessitura: Chris Groenendaal sings both ways, by Sheryl Flatow	October	January
Cary Guffey: growing up on screen, by Linda Hattendorf	September	February
The challenge of 'Children': doing good theatre means taking risks, by Julian Schlusberg	October	March
Choreography, by Lisa Huel		May
Part 1: Some tips for the director who can't dance	November	September
Part 2: Using student choreographers	December	January
The Crash: October 1929—an excerpt from the musical 'No Regrets'	March	February
Dear dad: why I'm in theatre, by Roger Hall	September	October
Des McAnuff: an interview by Jay E. Fields	April	November
Designer Michael Philipp: more than a technician, by M.A.J. McKenna	March	December
Designing a set, by M. Barrett Cleveland		January
Part 1: Designing a set	September	February
Part 2: The groundplan	October	March
Part 3: Elevations	November	April
Part 4: The rendering	December	May
Part 5: The scale model		June
Developing character: a creative process for character study, by Diana Mady-Kelly	March	July
Directing crowd scenes: what am I doing here? by William Lamont	March	August
Don't cast your fate to the wind, by Rosalind M. Flynn	January	September
Going through a stage, by Diana Moore	October	October
Howard Hunter's 'girl' friend: 'All Things Considered' interviews Lee Gartington	November	November
I was a teenage playwright, by Erica Christ	April	December
The iceman—and the barman—talkieh, by Patti Barth	December	January
Internships, by Jeanette Rattner	April	February
Jim Gettys' Gettysburg address, by Ben Fanton	April	March
Kenneth Branagh: the Royal Shakespeare Company's youngest Henry V, by Lesley J. Gudébus	September	April
Knottcraft: a knot for costumers and actors—the bow tie, by Steve Nelson	March	May
Lisa Cain, stuntwoman, by Sherly Flatow	September	June
The man of a thousand tongues, by Vincent Daddiego	November	July
Michele Busi: a teacher with faith in theatre, by Ezra Goldstein	December	August
Muncie: a 12-page Festival family album, by A.J. Zelada and Ezra Goldstein		September
Need plays? Try contests, by Thomas G. Dunn	March	October
A need to lead: Steven Schacter talks directing, by Don Corathers	November	November
No Regrets: the saga of a student-written musical, by Linda Hattendorf	March	December
A Norwegian view of a Kentucky festival, by Ezra Goldstein and Don Corathers		January
Picking a school: your most important role, by Donald Blaib	February	February
The play survey 1984-85	September	March
Playwright Tina Howe: getting from the specific to the universal by Ezra Goldstein	January	April
Preparing the audition monologue: using yourself to create your character, by Arno Salo	December	May
Production diary: 'Death of a Salesman,' by Carla-Maria Sullwald	April	June
Professional actor training in America, by Michael Hofferber		July
Part 1: An overview and a directory	November	August
Part 2: Inside a conservatory program	December	September 39
Part 3: Actor, made in Wisconsin		October
Part 4: On the road with The Acting Company		November
A professional approach to publicity, by Tom McElfresh		December
Raising young voices: two programs that nurture young playwrights, by Linda Pender and Joan Patchen		January
The Reader: light plays from serious writers, by David Grot		February
Rehearsal techniques: Robert Patrick offers twenty exercises in search of a character		March
Stage photography, by Richard Palmer		April
Stage presence, by Larry Meyers		May
Storytellers, by Reme Bosco		September
The 1986 Summer Theatre Guide		February
Putting some class into the summer of '86, by Linda Pender		March
Why bother? by Hal Laster		April
Eyewitnesses, by Linda Pender		May
A summer sampler: three programs		June
Trollwood, by John Marks		July
Chautauqua, by Ben Fanton		August
Camp Orbit, by William E. Fark		September
Summer theatre directory		October
Theme parks, by Mark Bryan Kellam		November
Outdoor drama, by the Institute of Outdoor Drama		December
Summer theatre update		January
A theatre: more than (but only) a building, by Nicholas Meyer		February
The theatre experience: the importance of theatre arts as a discipline in secondary schools, a statement by The International Thespian Society		March
Thespian booster Lew Hunter, by Linda Hattendorf		April
The Thespian play survey: four decades of Thespian favorites analyzed, by Patti P. Gillespie		May
The things we learn from theatre, by Ian McConnell		June
A tour to playwriting country, by Vince Williams		July
Trevor Rhone: Jamaica's playwright laureate, by Don Corathers		August
Viola Spolin: her new book inspires—and provokes—a review, by Michael Burnham		September
Where to go (or stay) to be a playwright, by Thomas G. Dunn		October
Why I teach theatre, by Ned Bobboff		November
Write—rehearse—write: a new program develops scripts for high schools, by Terrence Ortewin		December
Zen and the art of blocking: musical comedy karma, by Ezra Goldstein		January

Authors

Bart, Patti : The iceman—and the barman—talkieh	December
Blaib, Donald : Picking a school: your most important role	January
Bobboff, Ned : Why I teach theatre	March
Bosco, Reme : Storytellers	September
Burnham, Michael : Viola Spolin: her new book inspires—and provokes—a review	November
Christ, Erica : I was a teenage playwright	April
Christian, James C. : Are you ready for college?	May
Clark, Brian Burr : Down Came the Rain	June
Cleveland, M. Barrett : Designing a set: a five-part series:	July
Part 1: Designing a set	September
Part 2: The groundplan	October
Part 3: Elevations	November
Part 4: The rendering	December
Part 5: The scale model	January

TARKIO COLLEGE

announces

$2,000 Centennial Scholarship for Fall, 1986 to January, 1987
B.F.A. & B.A. in

Musical Theatre • Performance • Design
Theatre Management • Theatre Education

CONTACT

Director of Theatre
Tarkio College
Tarkio, Missouri 64491
816-736-4131 x422

For more information circle 31 on reader service card

FREE COLOR CATALOG

BEAUTIFUL & EXCITING THEATRICAL GIFT SELECTIONS.

Broadway and all of show business at your fingertips.

A catalog for theater, music & dance lovers of all ages. Pick from tee-shirts, posters, jewelry and other gifts.

Yes! I want a FREE gift catalog.

My Name

Address

Age

City

State

Zip

One Shubert Alley • 311 W. 43rd St. • NY, NY 10036

For more information circle 7 on reader service card

The MULE BARN Theatre
Professional Summer Stock Company

This publication is available in microform.

University Microfilms

International reproduces this publication in microform: microfiche and 16mm or 35mm film. For information about this publication or any of the more than 13,000 titles we offer, complete and mail the coupon to: University Microfilms International, 300 N. Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48106. Call us toll-free for an immediate response: 800-521-3044. Or call collect in Michigan, Alaska and Hawaii: 313-761-4700.

Please send information about these titles:

Name _____
 Company/Institution _____
 Address _____
 City _____
 State _____ Zip _____
 Phone (_____) _____

University
Microfilms
International

Corathers, Don: A need to lead: Steven Schachter talks directing November
A Norwegian view of a Kentucky festival: February
Trevor Rhone: Jamaica's playwright laureate: March
Brooklyn calling: May
Daddiego, Vincent: The man of a thousand tongues November

Dunn, Thomas G.: Where to go (or stay) to be a playwright September
 Need plays? Try contests March

Fanton, Ben: Jim Getty's Gettysburg address April
Chautauqua: February

Fark, William: Camp Orbit February
Fields, Jay E.: Des McAnuff April

Flatow, Sherry: Lisa Cain, stuntwoman September
Bye-bye Broadway, high tessitura: Chris Groenendaal sings both ways October

Flynn, Rosalind: Don't cast your fate to the wind November
Gillespie, Patti: The Thespian play survey: four decades of Thespian favorites September

Goldstein, Ezra: Muncie: a Festival family album October
Michele Busti: a teacher with faith in theatre December

Zen and the art of blocking: musical comedy karma January
Playwright Tina Howe: January
A Norwegian view of a Kentucky festival: February
Barry Stavis: sixty years of craft and commitment: April
Brooklyn calling: May

Grote, David: The Reader: light plays from serious writers September
Gudehus, Lesley: Kenneth Branagh: the Royal Shakespeare Company's youngest September

Hall, Roger: Dear dad: why I'm in theatre September
Hattendorf, Linda: Cary Guffey: growing up on screen September

Thespian booster Lew Hunter October
No Regrets: the saga of a student-written musical March

Heuvel, Liza: Choreography: some tips for the director who can't dance November
 Part 1 December

Part 2 December

Hofferber, Michael: Professional actor training in America: Part 1: An overview and a directory November
 Part 2: Inside a conservatory program December

Part 3: Actor, made in Wisconsin January
 Part 4: On the road with The Acting Company February

Kellam, Mark Bryan: Theme parks February
Laster, Hal: Why bother? February

Lennon, William: Directing crowd scenes: what am I doing here? January Mady-Kelly, Diana: Developing character: a creative process for character study March

Marks, John: Trollwood March
McElfresh, Tom: A professional approach to publicity February

McKenna, M.A.J.: Designer Michael Philippi: more than a technician May

Meyer, Nicholas: A theatre: more than (but only) a building March

Meyers, Larry: Stage presence December

Moore, Diana: Going through a stage May

Nelson, Steve: Knotcraft: a knot for costumers and actors—the bow-tie March

O'Connell, Ian: The things we learn from theatre December

Ortwein, Terrence: Write—rehearse—write: a new program develops scripts for high schools January

Palmer, Richard H.: Stage photography March

Patchen, Joan: Raising young voices April

Patrick, Robert: Left Out September

Rehearsal techniques: twenty exercises in search of a character October

Peltz, Michael J.: An actress blooms in the desert May

Pender, Linda: Putting some class into the summer of '86 February

Eyewitnesses February

Raising young voices April

The writing life April

Rattner, Jeanette: Internships April

Scanlan, Michael: Candid January

Schlesinger, Julian: The challenge of 'Children': doing good theatre means taking risks March

Seiko, Arno: Preparing the audition monologue: using yourself to create your character December

Stavis, Barrie: The Raw Edge of Victory, Act I April

The Raw Edge of Victory, Act II May

Sullivan, Carla-Maria: Production diary: 'Death of a Salesman' April

Williams, Vince: A tour to playwriting country March

Zelada, A.J.: Muncie: a Festival family album October

Plays

Candid, by Michael Scanlan: January

Down Came the Rain, by Brian Burr Clark: November

Left Out, by Robert Patrick: September

The Raw Edge of Victory, by Barrie Stavis: April

Act I May

Act II April

SUBSCRIBE TO

Britain's leading theatre magazine

The first issue of Drama — published in July 1919! — contained articles by William Archer, Sir Frank Benson and Harley Granville-Barker.

Since its' inception Britain's longest surviving theatre periodical can also name amongst its' contributors Gordon Craig, Tyrone Guthrie, Michel St. Denis, Bernard Shaw and many other great personalities of World Theatre.

Drama in the 1980's feature Britain's most prominent theatre critics covering all aspects of the national and international theatre scene, including radio and TV drama and a wide range of carefully selected book and play reviews.

Subscription rates: UK £8.00 (individuals) £10.00 (institutions), Europe SF 30.00 (indiv.) SF 40.00 (inst.), Outside Europe $17.00 (indiv.) $21.00 (inst.) all including postage.

For further information please contact
THE BRITISH THEATRE ASSOCIATION
9 Fitzroy Square, London W1P 6AE. 01 387 2666

For more information circle 81 on reader service card

